BRUCE KRANZ
SUPERVISOR DISTRICT 5

Bruce Kranz has dedicated nearly four decades to public service in fields ranging from natural resources management to law enforcement to local land use jurisdiction. He enjoyed a career in the California Department of Parks and Recreation spanning more than thirty years, including service as Superintendent of the American River District from 1986 until his retirement in 2000. In this capacity, he managed the Auburn and Folsom State Recreation Areas, which encompass 65,000 acres of beautiful territory, receive four million visitors every year, and have an annual budget in excess of $5 million.

Bruce's extensive experience with law enforcement officers and agencies includes his duties on the Executive Councils of the Placer County Law Enforcement Agencies and the Placer County Special Investigations Unit. He also played a key role in the Placer County Alcohol and Drug Five Year Master Plan Assessment. From 1995-1996, Bruce served as Chairman of the Placer County Charter Review Commission, which was charged with reviewing the county charter and identifying ways of saving taxpayer dollars by eliminating inefficiencies in county government. Since 1991, Bruce has served as a commissioner on the Placer County Local Agency Formation Commission (LAFCO), which reviews proposals involving jurisdictional changes for cities and special districts, including annexations. Bruce served the organization as Chairman in 1993-94 and 1996-97 and as Vice Chairman in 1995-96 and 1999-2000. From 2001 to 2002, Bruce represented Assemblyman Tim Leslie as his Senior Field Representative. Subsequently, he served as Senior Consultant to State Senator Sam Aanestad until joining the Board of Supervisors in January 2005. Bruce was born on March 21, 1949 and received a Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Education from California State University Fullerton in 1974. Since 1971, he has been married to Carol Kranz, who works as an administrator for a church in Grass Valley. They have four children: Stacy, Charity, Spencer, and Allie. The family has lived in the community since 1986 and currently resides in Weimar.
